The circulation of the DAILY SENTINEL is by far the LARGEST of any daily paper published in the State; and presents greater advantages to Merchants, Mechanics and Artisans, as a medium of advertising.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over two THOUSAND copies, which is constantly and rapidly increasing. Advertisements put in the Weekly at the same rates as in the Daily.

From our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Wednesday, April 5th, '54.

The Baltic's intelligence from the seat of war and concerning the quasi belligerents, is interesting chiefly from the developments it affords of the long meditated purposes of Russia to seize the inheritance of the "sick man," as the Imperial Doctor calls Turkey, and of its coaxing towards England to get her to join in providing beforehand, and to the exclusion of all but Russia and herself, from the partition of the spoils. It is a curious chapter in diplomacy which the British Government has just revealed to the world, by transmitting to Parliament copies of protocols and notes, reaching back some 12 years, and all showing the desire of Russia to join with England in killing and stripping Turkey, and in preventing any one else from taking a part in the killing, or the plunder. Neither Austria nor Prussia can be much flattered by the cavalier manner in which Russia ignores their influence, and even seems to deny their existence as "great powers," while France is only referred to as a common enemy.

Certainly, this publication renders the political imbroglio still more complex, and cannot tend to help Russia, while it will have the effect of cementing more closely the present amicable relations between France and England. It would now seem impossible that, on the receipt of the Russian refusal,—and refusal it will certainly be—to evacuate the Principalities within 40 days, in compliance with the peremptory summons of the western Powers, a formal declaration of war by England and France should longer be withheld; if indeed such a declaration be not previously made from the guns of Sir C. Napier's fleet in the Baltic. Cronstadt, as conjectured in a former letter, would seem to be the scene of the fire-eating English Admiral's future display. Up to the latest dates, however, the Gulf of Finland was still ice-bound, and therefore the citadel of Russia's naval strength was inaccessible to the assaults of a fleet.

With this certainty of war, all but declared, and of the prohibition to export breadstuffs from the Black Sea, it is rather a curious incident that the prices of wheat and flour should have fallen in the English markets at the latest dates. This may be partially accounted for, perhaps, by the rather more stringent state of the money market, and by the additional fact, mentioned in some letters, that, in anticipation of a possible prohibition, a very large portion of the stock of wheat at Odessa had been hurried off to England. But it cannot, I think, be doubtful, that there must be for next year—and who shall say for how much longer, if war once fairly be inaugurated on the European continent?—very remunerating prices paid for all the cereals we can raise and export. The western farmers especially, on their new and unexhausted lands, and with the facilities daily multiplying of Railroad transportation, have a good time before them, and may confidently, as it seems to me, and most advantageously, lay themselves out for extended cultivation, and for the largest aid for Railroads that tend to the water,—which is the great highway.

The Kansas and Nebraska iniquity, has received another severe rebuke in Connecticut, as you will see; and Rhode Island, which is next to speak, although her's be a small voice, will also, it is thought, join in the rebuke. Well she may;—for, as to her capital and commerce in times past, is traceable much of the importation into our country of slaves from Africa, so she is all the more bound now to unite with other states in setting bounds to the extension of slavery.

By the bye, the resolutions recently adopt ed by the Louisiana Legislature, in reference to a supposed project of ultimate emancipation of the slaves of Cuba, seems to me about as audacious an assumption of the Slavery Propaganda as even the Nebraska fraud. Have you noticed those resolutions? Lest you should not have done so, I enclose them herewith and ask you to publish them:

LOUISIANA ON SLAVERY IN CUBA.—The following resolutions were adopted by both branches of the Louisiana Legislature on the last night of the session:

Be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened. That we view with regret and alarm the policy recently inaugurated by the Government of Spain in the Island of Cuba, the manifest object of which must be the abolition of Slavery in that Colony and the sacrifice of the white race, with its arts, commerce and civilization, to a barbarous and inferior race.

Resolved, That the consummation of this policy will exercise a most pernicious influence upon the institutions and interests, social, commercial and political of the United States.

Resolved, That in our judgment the time has arrived when the Federal Government should adopt the most decisive and energetic measures to thwart and defeat a policy conceived in hatred to this Republic and calculated to retard her progress and prosperity.

Here we have the Slavery Spirit of aggression and intolerance exemplified, in a most unexpected and offensive form. Not only are we here in this model Republic, to perpetuate and extend Slavery—not only are State laws, but the laws and Constitution of the U. S. to be strengthened at home against Freedom,—but the Federal Government is invoked "to the most decisive and energetic measures" to oppose and defeat, as adverse to the interests and conceived "in hatred to this Republic," the policy of a foreign nation, absolutely independent of us, to break at home the fetters of the slave! The same people who scouted Kossuth and his Hungarian cause—who laugh to scorn even friendly exhortations on the part of our Government to the crushing despotisms of Europe in favor of their suffering and oppressed population,—invite that same government to "action and energetic measures" in favor, not of freedom, but of more hopeless oppression of the slave!

The free North and West really can need no more striking illustration than in these resolutions, of how completely the south counts upon bullying or buying all that it wants of Northern and Western support for the worst wrongs and the most exhorbitant pretensions of slavery, and how each successive concession to their arrogant claims but adds to that arrogance. Perhaps Freedom will at last arouse itself.

A CLOSE DEB.—We received yesterday the following letter from Columbus, Wis:

Messrs. R. King, & Co:

Enclosed please find six dollars, for six more copies of the weekly Sentinel for one year.—Who is ahead now?

Resp. Yours, D. F. N., P. M.

The query alludes to a statement which we published three or four weeks since of the circulation of our Weekly, when several of the post offices were running "neck and neck." On looking over our mail book, we find that, reckoning the above, we send to-day numbers as follows:

Waushara	53
Columbus	50
Waupun	49
Whitewater	42

There are many other packages ranging from 20 to 30, but the four above named are the largest. We have very reason to be satisfied with the result of our experiment in sending single copies for one dollar, and are grateful to our friends in the country who are doing us such efficient service.

Game of the Land Grabbers.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post has the following reference to the operations of the Land Grabbers at Washington:

The Railroad operators are deploring the loss of the Nebraska measure, as a large part of their active capital. While it remained before the House, the knowing ones continued to behave as if they thought there was a chance "for a trade," but now that it is out of the way, they have to tax their ingenuity to invent a new dodge; what shall it be, is probably now known to the initiated; but the public need not expect to be much enlightened on the subject, until the trap is sprung upon them. * * * * *

The railroad schemers in the House count eighty votes or as they term them, eighty true men; these are banded together by an engagement to vote against everything proposed by the eastern opposers of their schemes, and everything in which they suppose those those of legislation; as those eighty votes, added to the honest opponents of a measure can defeat almost any bill which comes up for a decision.

We learn from other sources that the unfortunate holders of the Rock Valley Union Rail Road Bonds and Stock, in Wall Street and elsewhere, have been heavily assessed to furnish the "sinews of war" indispensable for further operations at Washington. This call for another instalment has been reluctantly complied with, and as a last chance to get back the money of which the R. R. U. V. Co. have defrauded them, by plundering the Public Lands. A Democratic Congress is invited to aid and abet this swindling scheme; democratic newspapers in this State are so lost to principle as to advocate it; and even prominent members of our present State Administration are about going on to Washington to lobby for it!—In spite of all these efforts and appliances, however we have an abiding faith that the Land Pirates will be defeated in all their attempts to enrich themselves out of the Public Domain. Our Senators and Representatives are instructed on this point in terms so explicit and by a majority so overwhelming, that they must resist to the last all Land Grabs for Corporations and insist, if Grants are made at all, that they shall be subject to the conditions specified in the Legislative Memorial of March last. The voice of the Press and the People of our State, on this question, is well-nigh unanimous. Let their public servants heed it!

The Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad.

Mr. Edward H. Brodhead, the Superintendent and Engineer of the Mississippi and Milwaukee railroad, has forwarded to the Milwaukee Sentinel the following communication to exhibit the prodigious increase of business that has taken place on that road for the past three months when compared with the same months of the previous year. The statement is most encouraging to those engaged in pushing forward the construction of the Oakland and Ottawa road in this State, and clearly proves that just as soon as the latter impart.nt work is carried through there will pass over it as great, if not a greater business than that which has crowded the trains of the Great Western Railway since its opening.

The following statement should stimulate the directors and stockholders of the Michigan road to increased exertions to reach such a rich return as will undoubtedly flow into their coffers at an early day after its terminus on Lake Michigan can be reached by the locomotives of the company.—Detroit Daily Advertiser.

Sensible advice. The undivided trade and travel from the North-West is the prize to be secured by the speedy completion of the Rail Road to Grand Haven. The City of Detroit would make a handsome thing of it by giving one million of dollars, if need be, in City bonds, to ensure the opening of this road, to Lake Michigan, by the 1st of July next year. We believe that the financial arrangements of the Oakland and Ottawa R. R. Company are such as to leave little doubt that they will complete their work by that time. But Detroit has the means and ought to have the will, to remove all doubt on the subject, and make this early consummation of a great enterprize "a fixed fact,"

We in Wisconsin, too, should be stimulated to fresh efforts by the progress of the Oakland and Ottawa road. By the time that road reaches the Eastern brink of Lake Michigan, the Milwaukee and Mississippi Rail Road should be completed to Prairie du Chien. We need not dwell upon the advantages, to our City and State, certain to be derived from the opening of this new and attractive thoroughfare between the East and the West. Rail Roads have long since vindicated their own cause and demonstrated not only how important, but how indispensable they are, as elements of progress, prosperity and social improvement. All concede that the Road is to be built—the only unsettled question is, as to the time of its completion. While therefore we invoke Detroit to speed, with all her energies, the construction of the Oakland and Ottawa Rail Road, let us in Milwaukee see to it that no efforts are lacking on our part, to push ahead, with equal despatch, our Pioneer Rail Road to the Mississippi. It is an enterprize which will directly affect the interests, and should receive the cordial aid and support, of every citizen of Milwaukee. We cannot easily exaggerate the magic influence which the opening of the M. & M. Rail Road to the Mississippi, by the 1st of July 1855, would exert upon every branch of Industry in our City; the increase which it would instantly bring of trade, capital and population; or the upward impulse which it would give to the price of Real Estate, and the value of all descriptions of property. We have no manner of doubt that the rise in Real Estate alone, within six months after the opening of the road, would re-imburse our City and Citizens three-fold for every dollar they have spent, or shall spend, in pushing through this Iron way to the Father of Waters. Let us do then, what yet remains to be done, with a will.

Our Lake Shore Rail Road.

We learn from the Chicago Democratic Press that Messrs: STONE & WITT, Contractors for the Illinois portion of the road, have sub-let the whole of it (48 miles) and that the work will be pushed forward as fast as men and money can build it.—As the iron has all been contracted for, to be delivered as fast as the grading is completed, no doubt remains that the road will be completed and open for business between the two cities of Milwaukee and Chicago on the 1st day January next. We think that it will prove to be not only the best paying road in the State, but the most important one in advancing the growth and prosperity of our city.

New England "Settlers" for Nebraska.

The several states of New England, the great "hive" of Western Emigration, are contributing some capital "Settlers," for Nebraska. Since the Douglas-Administration scheme for Legislating Slavery into this Free Territory, was introduced in Congress, Maine, Vermont, and Massachusetts have spoken through their Legislatures, New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Rhode Island thro' the Ballot Box. The expression in each case has been sufficiently emphatic. NEW ENGLAND stands on record UNANIMOUS against the bill. Here are, as the Albany Evening Journal well says, "six settlers for the new Territory." WISCONSIN only wants the chance to furnish another.

PROTECTION TO PUBLISHERS.—An act relative to libel has passed the New York Assembly by a vote of 88 to 3. It provides that reporters, editors, and proprietors of newspapers, shall not be liable for fair and true reports of judicial, legislative, or public official proceedings, except upon actual proof of malice, or for libelous comments or remarks superadded, or interspersed, or connected with said report.

FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS.—Our fellow-citizen, J. S. PARDEE, has been appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, Consul of the U. S. for the port of San Juan del Sur, in Nicaragua.

Mr. Pardee will make an efficient officer.

Mr. D. MACAULAY, of Louisiana, succeeds Mr MITCHELL (Ik Marvel) as Consul for Venice and the ports on the Adriatic.

WANTED.—A short term to apply to three cent pieces, corresponding with "fip," "dime," quarter," and other like short names of American coin. "Three cent piece" is too long a phrase for the times. Will some inventive genius make suggestions.—Chicago Dem. Press.

How will "TRIP" serve your turn, neighbor? It is short for three-pence and monosyllabic.

News by the Mails.

MR. CALHOUN, Whig, was re-elected Mayor of Portland, on the 4th instant, by 1,503 votes against 1,484 cast for NEAL DOW, the father of the Maine Law.

GEO. W. CLINTON (Hard) and J. A. VERPLANK (Soft) both Lawyers and opposing Candidates, last Fall, for the office of Secretary of State, were elected Judges of the Superior Court, Buffalo, on Tuesday last. The salary is $8000 and the jurisdiction of the Court confined to the City of Buffalo.

THOMAS D. ELIOT, Whig and decidedly Anti-Nebraska, is elected to Congress by 500 majority, in the First District of Massachusetts, over A. HOWLAND, who was supported by the Free Soil and Native-American parties.

POST MASTER AT ST. LOUIS.—Col. David R. Armstrong has been appointed Post Master at St. Louis. He is one of the Anti-Benton wing of Missouri Democrats.

THE CINCINNATI CHARTER ELECTION, held on the 4th instant, resulted in the choice of a majority of Independent candidates over the regular Democratic nominees.

THE SHIP FAIRGATE BIRD, arrived at Philadelphia, from Manilla, reports having been fired into by a Chinese piratical junk off Pulo Toly, and having been chased for ten hours, but escaped.

THE REAL ESTATE SALES, in New York, at Public Auction, since the 1st of September last, are thus stated by the Evening Post:

September	$278,550
October	673,696
November	444,688
December	266,022
January	1,001,529
February	1,568,635
March	2,767,149
Total	$7,299,970

CLEVELAND AND OHIO CITY have voted for annexing the latter to the former. This will make Cleveland a city of some 42,000 souls.

THE FIRE AT BELOIT, of which we spoke in Saturday's Sentinel, destroyed a block of Stores on Race and Turtle Streets. The principal losers were E. D. MURRAY and A. B. CARPENTER & Co.

PROTECTION TO PUBLISHERS.—A law relative to libel has just passed the N. Y. Assembly by almost an unanimous vote. Ayes 88, nays 3, Messrs. Freeman, Seeley and Williams. The bill provides that reporters, editors and proprietors of newspapers, shall not be liable for fair and true reports of judicial, legislative or public official proceedings, except upon actual proof of malice, or for libelous comments or remarks superadded or interspersed, or connected with said report.

State Deaf and Dumb Asylum.

Milwaukee, April 10, 1854.

Messrs. Editors:

Permit me, through the columns of your valuable journal, to call the attention of those who may have Deaf and Dumb children to the fact that there is an Institution established at Delavan, that affords them instruction, which will in some measure make up for the loss of those faculties which it pleased God to deprive them of.

The Institution is located in a beautiful section of country, and is managed by Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins, who exert more than a Father's and Mother's care over the dear little creatures committed to their charge. I have left a boy of mine with them, and would recommend others that have children similarly afflicted to avail themselves of the advantages this Institution presents. The ground attached to the establishment is rather small; it is to be hoped that the State will provide for its enlargement equal to the wants of this truly benevolent Institution.

PATRICK O'DONNELL.

[We are confident that if the parents and guardians of the deaf mutes in Wisconsin knew how well the children are cared for and educated at Delavan, there would be a larger number of pupils in attendance. The late Legislature made an appropriation for the purpose of extending the accommodation of the Institution, and we doubt not that the money will be judiciously expended. Mr. JENKINS is admirably fitted for the position which he holds, as has been proved by the exhibitions of his pupils before the Legislature and in our city.—Ed. Sentinel.

☞ The Sentinel will now understand that we utterly deny that if Gov. BARSTOW goes to Washington, that it is for the purpose of advocating Land Grants. He has other business, in which all the honest men in the State are more or less interested, and who consider it his duty to make a correct representation of the People's grievances at Washington.—Wisconsin.

Very well. The Sentinel is duly grateful to the Wisconsin for being told what Gov. BARSTOW is not going to Washington for. Now will our neighbor be so good as to tell us what he is going for? What "business," what "urgent call of duty" summons our State Executive to the National Capital? What "grievances" are there which he can correctly represent, but our Members of Congress, it seems, cannot? What, in a word, is his mission? The Wisconsin assumes to know all about it. Can it be that it is afraid to tell?

CHARTER ELECTIONS—"SPRING FASHIONS."—Columbus, Ohio, has elected the entire Whig ticket, Nebraska being a prominent issue in the canvass. Wherever this issue has been fairly made and met, the Whigs have triumphed in all parts of the Northern and Eastern States.

St. Louis, on the other hand, which held its Charter Election last week, has re-elected its "democratic" officers. It is a significant fact that Benton men headed the ticket, and the Benton organs denounce the Nebraska bill, while the Republican, the leading whig paper there, sustains it.

DIRECTORS OF ILLINOIS CENTRAL RAILROAD.—At the recent election of Directors, the following, except the first, were chosen:

Gov. Joel A. Matteson, of Illinois, ex-officio.		Until
Joseph W. Alsop, of New York,	}	March,

OFFICERS.

William P. Burrall, President.
David A. Neil, Vice President.
Matthias B. Edgar, Treasurer.
John F. Bunce, Secretary.

☞ This Nebraska bill will prove the most destructive bombshell ever thrown into the democratic party. The whigs should erect a monument to Douglas, as he proves to be their friend—indeed.—Wisconsin (Dem.)

The whigs have no idea of restricting their gratitude to Mr. DOUGLAS The PIERCE Administration, which the Wisconsin helped to elect and still sustains, is entitled to an equal measure of thanks and even a loftier "monument."

A BROADSIDE INTO NEBRASKA.—The N. Y. Mirror understands that the 3,500 New England clergymen who petitioned against the "Nebraska bill," will all preach sermons on the subject on the approaching "Fast Day."

We suggest that our neighbor of the News proceed to deal with these clerical "agitators," as it has done with the Rev. Mr. MITES, for a similar offence against "Democracy."

ICE IN LAKE HURON—THE STRAITS. The Detroit papers publish a letter from Mackinac, dated March 19th, which says:

At Mackinac they are still surrounded with ice all over, and they have not yet had a chance to see blue water in Lake Huron. We are fearful that it is going to be a late spring.

We hear from a person who left Manistee early last week, that three men arrived there the day previous, from Presque Isle, Lake Huron, who reported that on both sides of the Straits, for a long distance, there was nothing but ice to be seen. The violent storm of Tuesday must have broken up the ice considerably, but it is doubtful if the Straits are yet clear.

ROCK COUNTY—TOWN ELECTIONS. In Rock County People's Tickets were chosen in the following towns, Beloit, Janesville, Johnstown and Porter; the Whig ticket succeeded in La Prairie, Harmony, Plymouth, Union and Magnolia; the Free Soil ticket in Milton, and a union ticket in Rock.

The News by the Baltic.

The official declaration of M. Manteuffel, the Prussian Prime Minister, of the neutrality of this power; the more clearly defined purpose of Austria to hold a similar position;—the sailing of a French squadron to join the English fleet in the Baltic, and the embarking of troops at Marseilles for Turkey; the loans or taxations by way of subscription, lottery and parliamentary vote in France, Austria, Prussia and England,—are certainly facts of such importance as to render each of them a fit subject for special consideration. But all these facts, and even that of the refusal of the Western ultimatum by the Czar, who is said to have declared that he "did not want six minutes, still less six days, to scorn such a proposition," dwindle into insignificance compared with the astounding revelations contained in the secret papers, presented to both Houses of Parliament by command of Her Majesty, commanded, in her turn, by the imperious call of a formidable public opinion.—These documents will be found given in full in this morning's Daily Times.

One feels, in reading these documents, as if admitted to a recent meeting of conspirators,—as if he had fallen upon persons stealing along on tip-toe, with faces masked and hands clasping bottles of aqua tofana, or some other deadly poison, and whispering mysteriously ominous words about a "sick man—a very sick man" whom they happen to have "on their hands," and who they are afraid will "slip away," before they have come to a perfect understanding among themselves as to the division of his effects. This is almost the language of the Czar of Russia, in speaking of the condition and fate of Turkey. But "your Majesty has forgotten Austria," Sir Hamilton Seymour ventures to suggest, to the proposal of Nicholas, who declared that he cared for nothing but a "good understanding with England." "Oh!" replied the Emperor, "you must understand that when I speak of Russia, I speak of Austria as well: what suits the one, suits the other."

And the British Minister was so greatly "surprised" on hearing this, that he ventured to suggest that some expressions should be used in a dispatch to him which might have the effect of putting an end to the further discussion of the subject, on which Nicholas had asked him for "some idea" in return, when he had none to give. And the general impression made upon him by the conversation may be inferred from the concluding words of his dispatch, which were these. —"A noble triumph would be obtained by the civilization of the Nineteenth Century, if the void left by the extinction of the Mahomedan rule in Europe could be filled up without an interruption of the general peace, in consequence of the precautions adopted by the two principal Governments, the most interested in the destruction of Turkey."

The prominent features of this recent correspondence are, first, the frankness of Nicholas, in declaring so emphatically and so repeatedly that the Turkish Empire would very soon fall to pieces; second, his equally open declaration that he "would not permit a pistol to be fired" for its reconstruction, nor would he tolerate its permanent occupation by any Power of importance:

"I will never," said he, "permit and attempt at the reconstruction of a Byzantine Empire or such an extension of Greece as would render her a powerful State; still less will I permit the breaking up of Turkey into little Republics, asylums for the Kossuths and Mazzinis, and other revolutionists of Europe; rather than submit to any of these arrangements, he would go to war, and as long as he had a man and a musket left, would carry it on."

But he did not see why Candia should not become an English possession as well as Egypt, "against taking which he has no objection to offer." And the third noticeable point in the correspondence is the contemptuous manner in which France is spoken of when she is mentioned at all.

A careful perusal of these documents will convince any sound judgment that the affair of Montenegro, with the mission of Count Leiningen, was the first move in the plan of campaign against Turkey, concerted between Russia and Austria.—It will prove further, that the English Government was in full possession of the Czar's designs, having itself been offered a share in the spoil, which was only refused because it was not found an equivalent for placing Constantinople in Russian hands. It will prove, finally, that while the British Cabinet, with the knowledge of such facts, and knowing the utter unreliability upon Austria, has suffered itself to be misled by the Vienna negotiations, until the Czar was enabled to complete his formidable armaments, in utter ignorance of these secret transactions, has, in furtherance of his own private designs, given aid to the Czar's war like plans, wholly in coincidence with his own professedly peaceable but really war like intentions.

These documents afford rather a striking comment on the sagacity of those who have been constantly declaring that the Czar had been led beyond his intentions,—and that he would embrace the earliest opportunity to get out of his awkward position. They may lead England also to revise her opinions about the dissimbleness of an alliance with Austria. The next steamer will probably bring us the declaration of war; and then we shall see whether there are not other men quite as "sick" as the Turkish Sultan.—N. Y. Times.

Another Outrage—Probable Murder—Hoffman Shot by Mrs. Baker.

The indignation of the public at the brutal, treatment of W. O. Hoffman by Wilson C. Baker last month, has barely subsided, yet they are startled again by another act, even more outrageous than the first. The wife of Baker, it is known, was implicated in that occurrence by an attempt to take the life of the victim by firing a pair of pistols at him in her room, for which, after her husband's examination and commitment she was arrested and bound over for trial. Not satisfied with the atrocious persecution which Hoffman has already experienced, Mrs. Baker has repeated her attempt, and, it may be, with fatal results.

Fourth street, the scene of the assault, as on every fair day, was thronged with persons and especially ladies walking and shopping. Hoffman and Mrs. Baker met by chance near the corner of Oliver. According to the statements of several eye-witnesses no words passed between them, and he made no movements towards addressing her. Mrs. Baker, upon recognizing him, drew out a revolver and presented it. He ran in to J. G. Simpson's store, exclaiming "Save me!" ran around the counter, and endeavored to stoop behind it, Mrs. Baker, before he could secure his retreat, leaning over the counter placed the pistol at his back and fired twice, only one shot, it is reported, taking effect.

She then sat down in the nearest chair. She wore a determined expression of countenance; but some minutes afterwards betrayed a slight weariness or nervousness of look, and asked for a glass of water, which was given her by one of the clerks. Nearly twenty ladies were in the store, and witnessed the occurrence. Her husband shortly made his appearance, and Mrs. Baker being in custody of Deputy County Marshal McMeans and McCamant and Capt. Cozzens, she was conducted to a carriage and driven off to jail.

A gentleman inquired of her before leaving the store if Hoffman had offered her any new insult, and she replied "no;" and that the reason for shooting him was that he had caused her to be brought before the public and disgraced. At the meeting with her husband, who had been sent for to his office on Commercial street, they were both lavish of endearments and embraces.

Physicians were summoned, and Hoffman placed under their care. On examination, they found that the ball had entered below the shoulder blade, between the fifth and sixth ribs, and ranged downward, lodging in the region of the stomach, all forming, in their opinion, a very dangerous, if not mortal wound.

He was removed about five o'clock to the Sister's Hospital, and, when heard from last, was alive, but in a critical condition.

Before his removal, Justice Johnstone arrived and took his statement. The following is a copy:

I came up Fourth street and met Mrs. Baker coming down Fourth street near the corner of Olive; she turned around and pulled out a pistol; I ran into Simpson's store; she followed me and shot twice. One ball took effect in my side.—I make this statement with the advice of my physician, that I am going to die from the effect of this wound.

Before Peter W. Johnstone, this 5th day of April, 1854.

Upon this statement, commitment was issued to the County Jailor, requiring Mrs. Baker's detention in custody. No examination, of course will take place until the result of Hoffman's wound can be determined.

DEMONSTRATION AT THE JAIL.—At ten o'clock last night a crowd of about two thousand persons had collected in the street surrounding the jail.—The great number were present only as spectators; and it is doubtful whether any part of the crowd seriously intend an attack upon the building, or any of its inmates.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—It becomes our duty this week to record a most serious accident which happened about five o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, March, 28th ult., in the Town of Westford, about four miles from this Village, resulting in the instantaneous death of an estimable young man by the name of Edson R. Gates, in the 22nd year of his age. It seems that he was in company with a son of Seth Harris, of this Village, each having a gun, when they discovered some wild geese flying over their heads, at which they were desirous of shooting, when young Gates, in shifting his position, jumped against the muzzle of Harris' gun, causing it to go off, and the whole charge went directly through his body, near the heart. He fell to the earth, saying "Oh! dear," and immediately expired. This sudden calamity has caused a shade of sorrow to overspread our whole community, for the person who was thus suddenly hurried into eternity was well known and universally esteemed. His father, Ransom R. Gates, had died about two weeks before, of consumption, and thus have two members of that family been called away in so short a time.—Dodge Co. Burr Oak.

A Curious Cow Case.

SUIT TO RECOVER THE VALUE OF A COW.—A suit was recently brought before Albert Smith, Esq., by Mary Sullivan, against John Fitzgerald, to recover the damage sustained by the death, either by killing or otherwise, of a cow, valued at $26. The action was in trespass by a civil warrant.—The evidence was in substance that plaintiff was a widow residing a short distance from the city, and kept a number of cows. On Sunday night one of the cows failed to come home with the rest; this led to a search for the missing cow.—On the Wednesday following the cow was found by plaintiff's son, dead, in the defendant's barn, (of the Badger State Hotel) and the barn locked. It was shown that defendant kept the barn locked and the key of it in his pocket, and that the back door was fastened on the inside. It was also shown that a mare and a young colt were in the barn, and that defendant stated he was first attracted to the cow being there by the smell.—The cow had a cut on the rump as if with the blade of an axe; also 5 or 6 holes through the flank as if with the tines of a pitch fork, some of them penetrating the intestines, and a cut about the nose. On the defense it was shown that no quarrel had existed between the two parties, that defendant bore a good character and was a fair dealing man. The value of the cow as sworn to was $20, for which amount the justice, holding the case a short time under advisement, returned judgment, with costs.

Great Gale and Thunder Storm.

The wind which blew freshly all Saturday night and Sunday morning from the North East, bringing with it occasional and welcome showers, increased to a gale, Sunday afternoon, accompanied by a heavy thunder storm. The rain fell steadily for several hours, and the wind increased in violence till nightfall; when it blew a hurricane, dislodging signs, prostrating trees, ripping awnings to pieces and twisting out of place many of the iron rods which support the awnings in front of stores on East Water Street. It continued to blow heavily all through the night, easing off gradually as morning dawned.

The damage done on land, so far as we have heard, was comparatively trifling; but it must, we fear, have been otherwise on the Lake. A tremendous sea was running outside and such was the fury of the blast that vessels could have done nothing but scud before it. The staunch Steamer E. E. Collins, Capt. BUTLER, which left Chicago Sunday morning, came along in the teeth of the heavy head wind and sea, arriving off this port between 4 and 5 o'clock. So heavy was the sea, however, that Capt. BUTLER had to run up under the North Point into smoother water before he ventured to "go about," and head for the river. On her way up the Collins passed three vessels, bound down, under close-reefed canvass; probably grain-laden and from Chicago.

The sea, during Sunday afternoon and evening, made a clean breach over the piers, breaking in the door and extinguishing the light of the Beacon on the Government Pier, at the entrance to the river. Capt. Woodruff, however, succeeded in repairing damages yesterday, so that the light is all right again.

The Big Carolina, loaded with corn, and bound from Chicago to Buffalo, was off this port Sunday morning, shortly before the gale commenced. When last seen she was standing out into the Lake under close-reefed canvass. A good deal of Lumber came ashore along the south part of the Bay yesterday, probably thrown overboard by some vessels during the storm. Our despatch from Chicago reports several disasters and we fear that we shall hear of others.

LECTURE.—A lecture by Rev. J. L. BALME, on "Churches and Slavery" is announced for this evening at 7½ o'clock, at the Congregational Church on Spring St.

NO BOAT LAST NIGHT. In consequence of the high wind and sea the Pacific did not leave Chicago, yesterday. The Collins also remained in port, during the day, intending to start for Sheboygan, last evening, if the weather permitted, and leaving here, on her regular time, for Chicago, this morning.

ASHORE.—We learn that the schooner Emma, belonging to this port, went ashore at Manitowoc during the N. E. blow, last Friday. She was light at the time, and is supposed to be hard aground.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—We were misinformed about the meeting of the Board of Supervisors. They do not convene till a week from next Monday. Free Democrat, please correct.

OUR MILWAUKEE ENGINE.—Neptune Company No. 2 were out, last evening, trying their new home-made machine. The Engine works easily and throws a very full and powerful stream.—She is yet to be tested at a fire, but all appearances indicate that the new machine will prove a most valuable addition to our Fire Department.

BAILED.—The boy Charles Owen, who was committed to prison on a charge of obtaining letters from the Post Office on false pretences, was yesterday brought before Commissioner Smith, and bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars, his father becoming security.

BOARD OF TRADE.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade, held last evening, Messrs. S. S. DAGGETT, A. L. KANE and JOHN NAZRO, Jr., were appointed a Committee to take the necessary steps to secure the location of the State Fair at this point, next fall.

FREE TRADE LINE.—A line of propellers and steamers, to consist of the Illinois, St. Joseph, Minnesota, Baltic, Saginaw, Delaware, and a new propeller, has been organized in Buffalo, to run to the upper Lakes the coming season.

COMING UP.—The propeller Iowa, Capt. Hinde, is advertised in Buffalo, to start for the upper lakes immediately on the opening of navigation. The Buffalo papers say that large quantities of merchandize, brought forward by railroad, are going on board vessels in that port.

The clipper brig Greyhound, of FOX's line, is advertised to leave Buffalo for Milwaukee, "as soon as the ice will permit."

JUDICIAL ELECTION—3D CIRCUIT.—The Sauk Co Standard gives in the vote in Baraboo, as follows: Larrabee, 137; Baird, 48; Blair, 2; Hand, 15.

Marquette Co. is reported to have given Larrabee a majority of 1000.

Judge Larrabee's election is doubtless certain.

The week past has been a quiet one in many departments of business, and receipts of Produce have been comparatively light. Country dealers, however, have come forward in considerable numbers to fill up their stock from the shelves of our wholesale dealers, which are well stocked with goods, and offer great inducements to buyers. Many of our merchants have already received considerable supplies by express, while others are now in the east making their purchases, and in quantity and quality of stocks they do not mean to be surpassed.

Business in Produce as been dull, and must be so until navigation opens, and our warehouses are lightened of their burdens. The news by the Europa, although of a further decline, does not seriously frighten holders of produce, it being looked upon generally as the consequence of immediate apprehension of war, and the desire of dealers on the other side, to accommodate themselves to the change of circumstances.

It being thus certain that war has at length really commenced in Europe, it becomes the people on this side of the water to consider how far that state of affairs is to influence prices of produce. It may be too early to predict with any confidence relative to breadstuffs, except so far as to say generally that farmers may be sure of rem

The Storm at Chicago.—Disasters to the Shipping.

Chicago, April 10th.

The whole of yesterday seemed to be devoted to an elemental war. In the morning a high wind from the north-east, accompanied with rain and hail p[ou]r[e]d. It increased in fury during the afternoon and night, while the floods descended. the wind meanwhile bordering on a gale.—The storm abated about 10 this morning. We fear the shipping on the lake has suffered from its fury, as several vessels, with full cargoes, were known to have been out in it. The brig Minerva, which cleared on Saturday last with 1700 barrels pork for Buffalo, was driven against the breakwater of the Illinois Central R. R. about half way between the Depots, at 9 o'clock this morning, where she now lies. It is said she leaks badly and will probably sink, though it is not likely that she will be very seriously injured, and from the nature of her cargo, no great loss will be experienced. The Minnesota and her cargo are owned by Thos. Dyer of this city. The brig Norman, which cleared on Saturday with 6000 bus. of corn for Oswego, with four other vessels, apparently small craft, are in sight, and we notice preparations being made to relieve them. The tug Replitz, Capt. Brown, will be ready to go out for the Norman soon. A schooner is reported on shore, a few miles to the northward, but we have nothing definite. The brig D. Smart lies at anchor off the Illinois Central Railroad depot, and as the severity of the gale appears to have past we trust we shall have no further disasters to notice.

P. S. The vessels reported in sight two hours since, have kept away nobly and one or two are already hull down to the east, north east. The steamer Pacific will leave for Milwaukee as soon as the gale has sufficiently abated.

THE CONNECTICUT ELECTION—"ANOTHER NAIL IN THE COFFIN OF THE ADMINISTRATION"—BRIDGEY AND INTIMIDATION THE ORDER AT THE WHITE HOUSE—REPLY OF A WESTERN MEMBER TO THE PRESIDENT.

The news of the Connecticut election has hit the Administration in the face again—it is another nail in its coffin. Marcy grows day by day more silent and sour; he spurns even his friends as if every word of kindness, in the midst of such confusion and wretchedness, were an insult.

Bullying, however, is still the order of the day at the White House. The President sent an especial messenger, the other day, to a distinguished Western member of the House, telling him that the Executive says, that no member must expect any favors from him who does not vote for the Nebraska Bill. The Western Bitterly replied, "Tell the President to go to hell—I shall vote as I have a mind to, on every question." A large number of the members have been approached to the same manner. Bribery or intimidation are the sole weapons which the Administration employs for its benefit. The result is that it is secretly laughed at and despised, even by those who are its public supporters. Its most ardent friends grow taciturn, and avoid any private talk on the subject. A distinguished Southern Senator, while reading the article in the National Democrat a few days ago, headed" A Dead Administration," said to me—"Well it is true; it is dead."

(From the Herald.)

SYNOPSIS OF THE CUTTING AND BRECKENRIDGE CORRESPONDENCE—THE FINALE OF THE DISPUTE, ETC.

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1854.—It is not intended to publish the correspondence between Messrs. Cutting and Breckenridge, such a publication not being deemed necessary or advisable. We have read the correspondence, and are permitted to make the following statement, which may be relied upon as correct.

On Monday the 27th of March, after the personal discussion in the House, Mr. Cutting addressed a note to Mr. Breckenridge, in which he demanded of him a withdrawal of the word "false" or that he would make such explanation as was due from one gentleman to another, and he referred to Mr. Maurice as his friend to act for him. Mr. Breckenridge replied to the first part of this note, that the word "false" was used by him in consequence of a previous expression made use of by Mr. Cutting, and until that was withdrawn he could not withdraw the word complained of. With reference to the second part of the note Mr. Breckenridge considered it a challenge, and accordingly appointed Col. Hawkins his friend, to arrange preliminaries.

On the following morning, Tuesday, Col. Hawkins met Mr. Maurice and tendered to him a note from Mr. Breckenridge, accepting the alternative proposition suggested in Mr. Cutting's note. This Mr. Maurice declined, but presented a letter from Mr. Cutting, which Col. Hawkins, considered could not be received; on the ground that no additional note could be accepted until Mr. Breckenridge's response to Mr. Cutting's challenge had been received by the latter. Thereupon both gentlemen separated, and Col. Hawkins delivered Mr. Breckenridge's note to Mr. Cutting, in person.

Mr. Maurice did not deliver the note he held from Mr. Cutting to Breckenridge.

Mr. Cutting, at this stage of the proceedings, substituted Col. Monroe for Mr. Maurice, as his friend, which was agreed upon. Hawkins and demanded the terms of meeting.

On Wednesday morning Col. Hawkins met Col. Monroe, and handed him in writing the terms, namely, to meet that afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock, near Mr. Blair's residence with rifles at sixty paces. At this interview the position of Mr. Breckenridge as the challenged party was not called in question, but objection was made by Col. Monroe to the hour of meeting, on the ground that weapons could not be procured in time. Thereupon, Col. Hawkins consented to a postponement of the meeting till the following morning, and it was agreed that the friends of the parties should meet that evening and make final arrangements.

In the evening Col. Monroe presented a paper in writing, claiming that his principal was the challenged not the challenging party, and therefore had the choice of weapons, which he named —pistols at ten paces.

Col. Hawkins declined to accede to this view of the case or yield the right of his principal to name the time, place and weapons as the challenged party.

Col. Monroe took the ground that neither he nor his principal considered the first note a challenge, but asked for time to confer with Mr. Cutting.

Col. Monroe the next morning stated that he was authorized by Mr. Cutting to declare that his first note was not intended as a challenge.

Col. Hawkins then referred them to Mr. Breckenridge's first note of the 27th, in which he declined to make the retraction of the word "false," so long as the cause remained in Mr. Cutting's previous expressions.

To this Mr. Cutting replied in writing, that the expressions used were intended as a criticism on his arguments, and not as personal to Mr. Breckenridge.

Mr. Breckenridge thereupon expressed his satisfaction at the disavowal of any personal offence on the part of Mr. Cutting, and willingly withdrew the offensive rejoinder, remarking that a similar disavowal on the part of Mr. Cutting at the time would have prevented all difficulty.

The affair was there terminated, to the satisfaction of the friends of both parties.

"Crushing Out."

The Administration is still engaged in the important business of endeavoring to "crush out" the National democrats of New York. Hiram Jones, a consistent democrat, and an estimable citizen, has been removed from the office of postmaster at Corfu, and Robert Miller, a violent, and peculiarly bitter free soiler, appointed in his place. Jones was crushed out of office because he had the audacity to vote for Clinton and the Canal enlargement. Miller run on the Putty Head—Marcy ticket last fall, for Assemblyman, and was awfully crushed out on that occasion by the people of this district. It is consoling to know that every dog has his day, and the democracy of the country, will in due time, try their hand at a little job in the "crushing" line. When that time comes, there will be such a cracking, and snapping, and scattering, of the dry and rotten carcasses of the spoilsmen, free soilers, soft shells, disunionists, and renegade whigs, who compose the party now in power, as will probably not be witnessed again in a century.—Oshkosh Courier (Dem.)

JOHN BAPTISTE BEAUBIEN.—The "old resident" of Chicago, will be glad to learn that the United States Senate have unanimously passed the private claim bill of J. B. Beaubien. Those acquainted with the early history of Chicago, and his identification with it, will doubtless feel the same gratification that we do, in learning that it will meet a like favorable action in the House.—Chicago Journal.

DROWNED.—A man by the name of FORD, formerly a shoe-maker in this town, was drowned in the Fourth Lake on yesterday The deceased was out in a boat with his wife and family; the boat capsized, some fishermen near by came to the rescue and saved the woman and children, but the man was not discovered by them till life was extinct. —Madison Argus.

The Land Swindle.

We find that there is beyond a doubt, in this State a certain sets f men who are disposed, if it be a possible thing, to grab all the public lands within the State. When last week they heard of the probable defeat of the "land grab bill" at Washington, and of the exposure of the fact of their misrepresentation of certain memorials passed by the Legislature of last year, they got their forces together at Madison to try the experiment of passing a memorial in favor of their land grants. To this, they got together all the Railroad interests of the State, and after counting faces found that even then they were too few to accomplish the nefarious deed, and, in order to wring in a sufficient number to carry the point, they hitched their memorial to the memorial for a Homestead bill. With this they importuned the poorer portion of the Assembly with the questions, "Won't you go for a Homestead Bill," and "Won't you go for a home for the poor man ?" In this manner, and at a time when the members were tired of Madison and anxious to get home, and ready to do anything to escape being bored to death, and many of them believing that in casting their vote they simply voted for the Homestead Bill, the measure was carried by a very close vote. Then goes forth the hue and cry that the legislature had passed a memorial in favor of land grants. These men ask for land grants to the amount of 10,000,000 acres of land, they ask for a law which will enable them to grab what are known as the Reprite of G. W. RYGATT. Swamp lands of the State, amounting to about 3,000,000 acres—both grants amounting to about 13,000,000 acres of land. The Homestead Bill provides that any citizen of the United States, or any person now a resident of the United States or Territories who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the U. S., may enter upon and appropriate to his own use 160 acres of any land subject to private entry at $1,25 per acre, and not in any other manner appropriated.

Thus, then, it is plain that those who voted for the memorial for land grants, voted at the same time to place 13,000,000 acres of the public lands of Wisconsin beyond the reach of those who may seek a home here. Under the provision of the "homestead bill," three millions of acres of swamp lands is not subject to private entry at $1.25 per acre, consequently cannot be reached under the homestead bill. The ten millions for Railroad grants will be "otherwise appropriated,"—thus placing that also beyond the reach of the poor man, who might, under the provisions of the homestead bill, find a home on these lands.

Of what avail will the homestead bill be in this State, if the 13,000,000 acres is grabbed by these heartless speculators? It will be a dead letter. Neither is the homestead bill perfect in its provisions, inasmuch as it deprives all foreigners coming into the U. S. after passage of the bill, of any benefits under the bill until they have been here five years. However, the memorial for a homestead bill may answer as a cloak to cover the enormity of the memorial for land swindling. While the one may be intended to assist the poor man in procuring a home, the other most effectually places the public lands beyond his reach.—Waukesha Democrat.

END OF THE DUEL.—The New York Mirror says:

The correspondence between Messrs. Cutting and Breckenridge is published. It is not very belligerent. Each party disclaimed having challenged the other, and both declined to take the challenged party. Mr. Cutting didn't understand the use of the rifle (Mr. B.'s weapon) and Mr. Breckenridge knew that Mr. C. with his weapon (a pistol) would pink him. So they both thought that discretion was the better part of valor, and each withdrew their offensive epithets and extended to the other renewed assurances of distinguished consideration.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—J. G. KNAPP, Esq. yesterday sold fifty acres of land outside of the corporation limits of this town for $7,500, or $500 per acre, to a gentleman from Massachusetts. Mr. K. bought the same land three years ago for thirty dollars an acre. This is about the rate at which all real estate in this town and neighborhood has increased in price within the same time. —Madison Argus.

A correspondent of The Brantford (C. W.) Herald, in speaking of the progress of the age, and the benefits of railroads, says :

"In the year 1807 it was advertised in Detroit that a vessel would leave that port for Buffalo. Spring opened, navigation was resumed. But lo! in the solitary craft there was but one passenger—and on reaching Buffalo there were but two shanty taverns. He asked for a stage to go on to Canandaigua. It was said there was but one stage a week, and that had just gone. This was a common wagon. What mighty changes has time effected by the instrumentality of inventive genius of modes of travel.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.—The three trains over the Michigan Southern Railroad, yesterday, contained twenty-nine cars, and brought into the city upward of fifteen hundred passengers. Of this number the Express train, under the care of our friend DAVISON, brought over six hundred and fifty through passengers.

P. S. The conductor of the train over this road, due at 2 P. M. to day telegraphs that it consists of fifteen cars full of passengers.

THE LATE ELECTIONS.—It is related of a man who had never visited Niagara before, that he mistook the spray for rain, and kept housed for a couple of days, unwilling to have his best clothes soiled with the damp. On the third day he inquired of a boarder at the same hotel if that infernal rain was ever going to stop. We are in some what the same fix. Are these infernal elections ever going to stop?—Ohio State Democrat.

Green Bay Items.

From the Advocate.

THE BURNT DISTRICT begins to lose something of its desolate appearance. Mr. A. HART is putting up a building for a store on the ground owned by F. A. LATHROP, and we notice that piles of timber are being collected for other structures.

THE FIRST BOAT ON HER WAY.—We are informed that the steamer Columbia, owned by J. M. CRAW, was to start from Cleveland for Green Bay on the 3d inst. She is to perform weekly trips between Chicago and Green Bay during the present season.

AT IT AGAIN.—The Steam Mill on East River, owned by O. GRAY, of Howard, is now in full operation. Day and night may be seen issuing from the chimney pipe "the smoke that so gracefully curled." The new Water Saw Mill recently built by J. P. ARNDT on Duck Creek, commenced running last Monday.

Since writing the above, the tall chimney of the Steam Saw Mill over the river has begun to emit clouds of smoke, and the mill commences its task of cutting 2,500,000 ft. of lumber during the present season. This establishment is owned by Messrs. Howe & Co., and has an engine of about 75 horse power, propelling at present an upright muley saw, a shingle mill, and a siding machine.

LABORERS WANTED.—The Fox River Improvement Company have advertised for FIVE HUNDRED day laborers, for whose services the highest cash wages will be paid.

There was a large majority of votes cast at the town election in favor of removing the county seat of Brown county to Green Bay.

LETTER FROM A CONDEMNED CRIMINAL.—David Jewell, who was executed at Pittsburg on Friday last, wrote a most feeling letter to a friend, a few days previous, returning his thanks to him and his wife for their kind attentions to him while in prison, and adding:

"I trust what little I have to say to you will not be deemed wrong nor out of place; it may be a benefit to you in years to come, and you may profit by it, which I hope you will. Only look back to the morning of the 5th of July, 1853, and picture to yourself the happy man I was on that glorious but unhappy day to me. I left my little family under the promise to be back again in the course of an hour, to accompany them on a railroad excursion; from there I got in the company of some young friends, took a social drink together, and from that to another, and another, and yet another: I then forgot my promise to those I held most near and dear to me. And it is to this blighting curse, and against its use, I wish to draw your attention. You are younger than I am, and I know you will bear with me in warning you from ever, ever touching it."

After enlarging upon the evil effects of intemperance, he concludes thus :

"I will say no more in regard to this, but my last word to you is, never, never drink liquor, and you will be a happy man. Leave off running with fire engines; they are the means of bringing many a good man to shame and disgrace. Let your evenings be spent in the society of your wife and child, and my word for it, you will be the happiest of the happy."

MERCHANTS' HOTEL.—John Kimball, Esq, the late popular landlord of the New England House has taken charge of the Merchant's Hotel. No public house in the west has gained a better reputation with the traveling community than the New England under Mr. Kimball's management, and he will call hosts of his old friends to the Merchants.'—Janesville Gazette.

of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits, CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN

BITTERS,

Prepared by Doct. C. M. Jackson,
AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
120 Arch-st., Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attest, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in the removal and affections of the digestive organs, they are withal safe, certain and pleasant.

READ AND BE CONVINCED.

[From the Boston Bee.]

The Editor said, Dec. 22d: "Dr. Hoofland's celebrated German Bitters, for the cure of Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, is deservedly one of the most popular medicines of the day. These Bitters have been used by thousands, and a friend at our elbow says he has himself received an effectual and permanent cure of Liver Complaint from the use of this remedy. We are convinced that, in the use of these Bitters, the patient constantly gains strength and vigor, a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use."

Dr. HOOFLAND'S WRITE.

One of the best literary papers published, said, August 2 "Dr. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, manufactured by Dr Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty, as an article of much efficacy in cases of dyspepsia, &c. As such it is the case, it would be well all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitution will find these Bitters advantageous to health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weaklysystems."

MORE EVIDENCE.

The Hon. C. D. HURLBUT, Mayor of the City of Camden N. J., says:

"HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which the cause induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the operation of it was more than we commented it as the most wonderful discovery of the age in which we live.

Extract of a letter from R. Thorn, Sheriff of La Salle county, Illinois:

Prof. O. J. Wood—Dear Sir: Years of June 21st, accompanied by a bottle of your Hair Restorative, were duly received. I very soon commenced using it, and it has entirely restored my hair to its natural youthful color.—There is considerable inquiry for the article. Yours, &c. R. THORN.

To the Afflicted Everywhere,

DR. A. L. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM COMES GREETING!

DR. A. L. ADAMS' NEW CURE FOR DISEASE is saving the inquiry in the mouths of all Who read it. How is it that Americans have been so long and so lavishly immured in darkness and ignorance on the subject of disease.

DR. A. A. ADAMS' LIVER BALSAM.

The great Panacea of Disease is offered to the afflicted of the States and territories for the entire cure of Liver Complaints in all stages, Bilious Fever, Ague and Fever, Chronic Lung Fever, Dropsical Affections, Coughs, Consumption, Asthma, Jaundice, Bowel Complaints, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, General Debility, Nervousness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Female Complaints, &c.

Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam now sustains the highest reputation of any remedy before the public and has proved to the most skeptical, beyond a shadow of doubt that it is the only reliable medicine ever discovered (being purely vegetable) for the permanent cure of the above disease. The most skeptical have become its most sanguine votaries, and pronounce the Liver Balsam to be the only reliable barbinger of health to the afflicted everywhere.

Testimonials come in from the every circle it has made, swollen with expressions of gratitude for the relief received by its use. And, in submitting this, the Liver Balsam is recommended to the suffering under the iron grasp of the monster disease, and at once procure one bottle of Dr. A. L. Adams' Liver Balsam.

Cast and Wrought Iron Works, for Grist and Saw Mills. Also, all kinds of Machinery, at their well known establishment, Nos. 209 and 209 West Water Street.

They are themselves both practical mechanics, the one a resident builder of "many years' experience; the other a machinist of thirty year's experience. They likewise employ none but the very best workmen that can be obtained.

Their stock of patterns cannot be excelled, as they have all been made expressly for the wants of this State—and they can and will do better than any similar establishment in this State, and on the shortest notice.

☞ They respectfully solicit a call at the
